Kendallville Public Library
Providing access to information...for life.

Guess who's moving to town!
Listen to Cataloged Conversations, a Kendallville Public Library Podcast

KPL is now on the air! We’ve started a podcast series to help you learn more about us personally, and about what the library offers.

In our first podcast, Teen Services Manager Marie Kaufmann chatted with young adult author Saundra Mitchell. In our latest podcast, Marketing Specialist Jenna Anderson, Adult Services Manager Leah Dresser and Children’s Services Manager Beth Munk discuss the debate about Grilled Cheese vs. Cheese Toastie, and highlight the library’s Cooking collection.

Give it a listen! You can subscribe through SoundCloud, or search Cataloged Conversations on iTunes. Have an iPhone? The podcast app is fantastic, plus there are plenty of other apps available for both iOS and Android.

Show your patriotism with our new Americana Art Collection. Decorate your home or office in red, white and blue, plus some rustic wood designs! All art prints check out for up to three months, and can be renewed for another three month period if no holds have been placed on the print. The entire collection of art prints is on display throughout the Kendallville Public Library and in its Art Gallery, plus, see some as decor at the Limberlost Branch!

On the last m of the month, the Kendallville Public Library will be hosting a conversation about the summer reading program on our Facebook page and at the library. We will be talking about our Summer Adventure! This year, we will be focusing on the theme of community, and we will be partnering with several local organizations to create a fun and engaging experience for all ages. We will be holding several events throughout the summer, including a book launch party, a reading challenge, and a craft fair. The events will be held in a variety of locations, including the Kendallville Public Library, the Kendallville Chamber of Commerce, and the Kendallville Park Department. We will be offering a variety of activities for all ages, including book clubs, storytelling sessions, and craft workshops. We will also be offering a variety of prizes for participants, including books, gift cards, and other exciting items.

One month to go in our Summer Adventure!
Our Challenge...Accepted Summer Adventure wraps up on Saturday, July 28, but there is still plenty of time to participate.

Read and check out materials to contribute toward our 35,000 item check out goal. Vote for your favorite community prize: a book bike, STEM demo table, or an outdoor game collection.

If you haven’t already signed up for Design Your Climb, here’s how to get started:
Go to the library’s website at www.kendallvillelibrary.org or access Design Your Climb through the mobile app. Register you and your family to participate. Log your completed challenges online. Earn points and virtual badges.

Vote to win our “Skills Table” at each library location, to learn something new!

We’ve just added a KPL Marketing Challenge, which encourages everyone to take photos or videos of themselves using library materials. See a Wait & Read Basket? Take a pic! Going on an Adventure Walk? Grab a video. Show your patriotism with our new Americana Art Collection. Decorate your home or office in red, white and blue, plus some rustic wood designs! Design Your Climb: Personal Growth is Already Growing!
Design Your Climb: Personal Growth may have just debuted June 1, but it’s already expanding with new challenges.

We’ve just added a KPL Marketing Challenge, which encourages everyone to take photos or videos of themselves using library materials. See a Wait & Read Basket? Take a pic! Going on an Adventure Walk? Grab a video.

If you haven’t already signed up for Design Your Climb, here’s how to get started:
Go to the library’s website at www.kendallvillelibrary.org or access Design Your Climb through the mobile app. Register you and your family to participate. Log your completed challenges online. Earn points and virtual badges. Enter to win in our prize drawings. Once you have earned 10 points, you are automatically eligible! Don’t want to participate online? We have challenge bookmarks available in the library.

Design Your Climb is a partnership between KPL and the East Noble School Corporation. ENSC will be kicking off the Educational Growth pilot this fall with second grade classes. More info will be available soon!
Activities for Kids
Birth - Grade 5

The Dumpster Diver
Written by Janet Wong, Illustrated by David Roberts

Steve is an electrician who dives for buried treasure in the alley behind his building. Steve, along with three other kids from the apartment building, form the diving team. They help Steve find treasures and turn an old blender into a lamp and an old lamp into a table. One day, Steve gets hurt diving for treasure, and the rest of the team go door to door collecting useful junk. Instead of diving through trash, they build a wheelchair for Steve!

What the Night Sings
By Vesper Stamper

This novel is about a young Holocaust survivor named Gerta. Teenage Gerta was recently liberated from a Nazi concentration camp. Though she survived and was finally free, she is all alone. Sadly, everyone in her family is no longer living. Absolutely everything in her life was stolen from her, including her father, her music, and even her prior identity.

Now she must focus on the future instead of survival, and try to live a normal life. She lives in a displaced persons camp where she meets another teenage survivor named Lev. She starts to think she might be falling for Lev, even though she has feelings for someone else. Gerta renews her relationship with music that she thought was lost forever, and finds a Jewish identity she never knew existed. Now she must decide how to build her new future.

Readers of historical fiction will enjoy this story.

The Infinity Gauntlet
By Jim Starlin, Ron Lim, and George Perez

Mistress Death brought the mighty titan Thanos back from the dead to help her restore balance to the universe by killing half of all the living creatures. Using his newfound powers, Thanos acquires all six infinity stones, essentially making him a deity with omnipotent power. He does as Mistress Death wishes, and with the snap of his fingers half of the humans and animals throughout the universe disappear.

Led by Adam Warlock, all the remaining heroes band together to try and take out the insane Thanos. This book may hold a few clues about what will happen in the next Avengers movie. If you want to develop your own theories about the future of the Marvel Universe, give this title a read.

This is a must read for fans of the Marvel Universe.
