Newest Collection: Specialty and Character Cake Pans

Want to make your child’s birthday party extra special, or spice up any gathering? Bake a cake with one of our unique cake pans and decorating kits, available free for check out beginning October 5 at KPL and LPL.

The available cake pans include a Monkey, Car, Butterfly, Ballerina Bear, Teddy Bear, Baby Carriage, Airplane, Crown, Giant Cupcake, Dinosaur, Fire Truck, Football Helmet, Guitar, Ladybug, Noah’s Ark, Pirate Ship, Horse, Rocking Horse, Princess Carriage, Soccer Ball, Football, Tractor and a variety of shapes. Or, check out a licensed character like Buzz Lightyear, Dora the Explorer, Hello Kitty, Lightning McQueen, Ariel, Mickey Mouse, Monster High, Spiderman, Spongebob Squarepants, Darth Vader, and Thomas the Tank Engine.

Here are a few quick notes about checking out cake pans and decorating kits. Each item checks out for three weeks. All items must be returned clean and dropped off at a Circulation Desk. They may not be put in a book drop. Anyone who returns pans and decorating sets dirty or in a drop box will be charged a $5 fee per set. Complete details, as well as baking instructions and tips, are included with each pan or decorating set.

Need to learn HOW to decorate? We can help with that, too! Flip to page 10 and read about the Cake Decorating Workshop we have coming up on Thursday, October 22.

This is open to grades K-12, but only the first 75 registered students may attend in Kendallville, and the first 30 registered students may attend in Rome City. Call the library (KPL: 260-343-2010 or LPL: 260-854-2775) to sign up, or register through the online event calendar at www.kendallvillelibrary.org.

Welcome to Oz!

Celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the Wizard of Oz at the Kendallville Public Library throughout the month of October. Walk the yellow brick road; visit Munchkin Land, solve riddles, flee the witch, and make your way ‘home’. Your journey awaits in the Adult Department in Kendallville. Watch the movie with us, too!
Meet the Author: Roland Smith

October 6th marks the day that Roland Smith releases The Edge, the much awaited sequel to Peak. Haven’t read Peak, now is the time! This book takes us to the top of Mount Everest and back down again, Peak joins his father half way around the world to attempt to be the youngest to summit the highest mountain in the world.

Smith is known for writing high action books that draw students in and leave them begging for more. One of his most popular series is the Storm Runners series. This series follows a boy and his father as they travel to Florida in the middle of hurricane season to help residents prep for the storms and recover from the destruction as they pass.

Doesn’t sound like your thing, no problem, Smith writes books for everyone. Check out the Cryptid series: Sasquatch, Tentacles, Mutation, or Chupacabra -- wonderfully exciting stories set around those elusive beasts of lore. Or check out any of the other books written by this author, but be sure to add Beneath to your list -- the book Smith himself calls “his best work.”

Monstrous Affections
Edited by Kelly Link

Looking for your next thrilling scare? Then pick up this collection of chilling stories by 15 different popular authors. This book includes predatory kraken, demonic band members, love sick harpies, sketchy vampire boyfriends, vengeful ancient beasts, space aliens, among other terrifying beings.

No story is connected to the next, but there’s a theme that runs strong throughout the collection. Each story hints at loneliness and the power that feeling holds. A feeling that can ultimately lead to connections across generations, galaxies, and species. This book is as moving as it is spine tingling, a dynamic group of stories that deserve a read.

Readers of speculative horror will enjoy this collection of frightening tales.

Batman ’66 Volume 1
By Jeff Parker and Jonathan Case

Have you ever seen the old Batman television show featuring Adam West as Batman and Cesar Romero as the notorious Joker? Well, now you can read it in all of its campy graphic novel glory.

This breakthrough first volume features a few capers directly tied to the 60’s Batman television series. Go back in time and follow the Caped Crusader as he solves the Riddler’s latest puzzle, chases the dazzling crime obsessed Catwoman, and comes face to face with the one and only Penguin. Will Batman and Robin save the day? Or is the dynamic duo bound for defeat? Take a look at this graphic novel to find out.

Readers of graphic novels and batman enthusiasts will like this title.
