SARAH MCRAY BECOMES BRIDE OF ATLANTA MAN

United in Marriage With Robert West Candler At Exquisite Ceremony

RECEPTION FOLLOWS IN BEAUTIFUL GARDEN

Couple Leaves For Canada to Spend Honeyymoon; At Home In Atlanta After Oct. 1

A lovely garden wedding, complete in all its details, was solemnized yesterday at 3:30 o'clock, when Sarah M. McCray, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. McCray, was united in marriage with Robert West Candler, son of Mrs. Ann Warden Candler of Atlanta, Ga. The event, one of the most outstanding spectacles ever seen artistically and scientifically, held in Atlanta or anywhere in the South, was held in the McCray estate, 725 East Mitchell street.

In a fairyland of resplendent beauty, transformed from a summer garden where that in itself is lovely, into a land of enchantment, was the scene of the wedding. Against a background of all the colors of the rainbow, and placed among the white large cathedral candles, created by a skillful artist, one of the most unique features of the evening was the fountain, the center of attraction.

The bridal party, Miss McCray, carrying a large shapely bouquet of lily of the valley, her bouquet, was for the ceremony and the reception, was the same with the exception of the flowers used in the bouquet and the attendants.

The ceremony was pronounced at 3:30 o'clock, and the wedding service was performed by the Rev. Mr. J. H. White, of Cairo, Ga., with the Rev. Mr. J. H. Compton, of Atlanta, officiating.

The wedding was witnessed by the attendance of about 500 guests, all the guests being seated in the church. The wedding party was composed of the bride and groom, the best man and groomsmen, the bridesmaids and attendants, the maid of honor and other members of the bridal party.

The wedding was performed at the McCray estate, 725 East Mitchell street, and the wedding party was composed of the bride and groom, the best man and groomsmen, the bridesmaids and attendants, the maid of honor and other members of the bridal party.

The wedding was performed at the McCray estate, 725 East Mitchell street, and the wedding party was composed of the bride and groom, the best man and groomsmen, the bridesmaids and attendants, the maid of honor and other members of the bridal party.

L. S. BRUMBAUGH NAMED HEAD OF CITY SCHOOLS

Succeeds H. M. Dixon As Superintendent At Close Of Current Year

ROYAL TRITCH TO BECOME H. S. PRINCIPAL

Appointments By Board Of Education Based On Meritorious Work

L. S. Brumbaugh, principal of the Kenedalis high school for the past twenty years, has been appointed by the education board as superintendent, and will succeed H. M. Dixon, who resigns July 31.

Announcement to this effect was made today by C. A. Miller, president of the board of education.

Succeeding Mr. Brumbaugh as principal of the high school is a former teacher of the school, Mr. J. H. Trisch, who has served as principal of the junior high school during the current year.

The elevation of both men to that responsible post is in line with the general policy of the board of education. The new principal of the high school will bring to the position an experience in education that is second to none in the state. The new teacher of the junior high school will bring to the position an experience in education that is second to none in the state.

Mr. Brumbaugh has been a teacher in public schools for twenty years, and has served as principal of the junior high school during the current year.

Mr. Trisch has served for two years as a teacher in the junior high school, and has served as principal of the junior high school during the current year.

Mr. Brumbaugh has been a teacher in public schools for twenty years, and has served as principal of the junior high school during the current year.

Mr. Trisch has served for two years as a teacher in the junior high school, and has served as principal of the junior high school during the current year.