Meet, Greet and Learn from Local Artists, Authors

The Art and Author Fair will be held at the Kendallville Public Library on Friday, September 15 from 2:00 to 7:00 p.m. This event will be held in conjunction with the Kendallville Chamber of Commerce Showcase Kendallville and Job Fair.

Featured artists include Jill Bontrager, Joan Bovee, David Button, Jerry Easterday, Sandy Flack, Jane Hayden, Steve J. Herendeen, Mark R. and Emily Hunter, Nathan Marchand, Harry J. Truman and Belinda Wilson. More information about these featured artists and authors, and details on the event itself, can be found online at www.kendallvillelibrary.org. The library has also created a Facebook event, so feel free to interact and share there!

The Kendallville Public Library will also be sponsoring a free family painting project at this event. All ages can come and paint a canvas - we’ll have step-by-step instructions to guide you.

Businesses that would like to participate in Showcase Kendallville are encouraged to contact the Kendallville Chamber of Commerce at 260-347-1554. Both events are free for the public to attend.

Select Reads Video Now Available!

Select Reads is a fantastic way to learn what books are new to the library, find titles that interest you, and even keep up with your favorite authors. It offers a lot, so to help you learn how to use it efficiently, we’ve created a brochure and a training video. Brochures are available at the Kendallville Public Library and its Limberlost Branch. The video is available now through KPL Connect at www.kendallvillelibrary.org. Just click on the blue tab that’s on the right side of the web page. You can also choose Online Tutorials under the Online Resources menu.

New Fall Art Prints!

Just like you, we want to keep our decor fresh. So we’ve invested in some brand new artwork that’s perfect for fall. If your home could use a little fall flair, come and see what we’ve got.

You can check out up to four art prints for three months, and each print can be renewed once for an additional three months if there are no holds on the item.

Library to Know

Thank you to those who have donated to our READ program in the last month:

New Cortex Kits Added to Collection

The Cortex is expanding! We recently added an Atari Flashback 7 kit, as well as a MeeperBOT 2.0, now available for checkout. This month we also added a photography kit which includes a Canon EOS Rebel T6 Digital SLR Camera! In The Cortex, you’ll find a new photo printer that can also print on a variety of other media for any of your projects.

Keep your eye out for these new additions. You can also learn more about The Cortex and Cortex Kits on our website at www.kendallvillelibrary.org.

KPL Sponsoring Free Owl-Oween Tickets!

Beginning in September, the Kendallville Public Library will be offering free tickets to Owl-Oween, an annual event at the Gene Stratton-Porter State Historic Site in Rome City. To get tickets, families must attend any children’s event at the Kendallville Public Library or its Limberlost Branch from September 2 through October 11. Tickets are available while supplies last. Owl-Oween will be held on Friday, October 13th and Saturday, October 14th from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. at 1205 Pleasant Point, Rome City, Indiana, 46784. The library has purchased 50 tickets to give away, so attend a children’s event soon to claim yours!

Experience the KPL Apple Orchard!

Children can play (and learn!) in the KPL Apple Orchard this month. Our Children’s Area will be transformed into this self-directed play theme all through September. The activities in the “orchard” will help kids learn colors, numbers, sorting and more!

Come back each month for a new theme and brand new activities so your kids can have fun and keep learning (whether they realize it or not).
A Camper’s Guide to an Awesome Camping Trip

By Marne Ventura

It’s a great time to go camping! If you want to make sure you have the best camping trip with fun, food, games and more, check out A Camper’s Guide to an Awesome Camping Trip.

Start with the basics. It’s smart to know the answers to a few questions that will help you prepare for your adventure. Find the questions on page 5 to help gather the items for your trip. The key to camping is to bring as little as possible, but still have everything you need. While on your trek to the spot where you will camp, you don’t want to be bitten up by bugs! Learn how to make your own bug repellent to keep the mosquitoes at bay, then carry it with you in a spray bottle.

After you settle into your special spot in the mountains, by the lake, in the woods, or even in your own backyard, you will want to cook a yummy meal so that you and your friends can enjoy the evening and get a good night’s sleep for the next day. What will you make? This book will give you supply lists, directions, and recipes for scrumptious food to keep you energized! There are even instructions on how to use a pizza box and the power of the sun to cook your food. How fun!

A Camper’s Guide to an Awesome Camping Trip by Marne Ventura is an informational, clearly illustrated book that will turn you into a creative, seasoned camper in no time! You’ll be stargazing, branch-weaving, and scavenger-hunting your way through fun-filled outdoor days.

If reading this book leaves you wanting to learn more about camping and surviving in the great outdoors, the author provides several suggestions for further reading to continue your adventures. The book also contains a FactHound code, so that you can go online and search for more books and Internet sites related to camping.

Other titles in this series available at the library include: A Girl’s Guide to the Perfect Sleepover (also by Marne Ventura), and A Traveler’s Guide to a Smooth Road Trip by Melissa Higgins.

You can find A Camper’s Guide to an Awesome Camping Trip in the KID SPORTS CAMPING section. Grab it and get outdoors and have some fun!

A Tree is Nice

By Janice May Udry

This book seems like a simple ode to a tree, but it can be so much more. Janice May Udry uses half colorful and half black-and-white illustrations to explain all the ways in which trees can be great. Whether it is for the beautiful leaves, long sturdy climbing limbs, cool shade, or something else, trees are something to be admired - and shared with others.

If you’re a parent who would like to know more about what this book teaches your child, or an educator who needs information on standards, here are the Curriculum Connections:
- Natural vs. Man-made
- Plant parts and functions
- Ecosystems
- Measuring
- Opinion vs. Fact

Camp Midnight
By Steven T. Seagle
Sarcastically hilarious Skye spends every summer and holiday with her dad and “step-monster” Gayle. However, this summer her “step-monster” decides that she should spend the summer at camp making new friends. Skye is furious and decidedly refuses to make any friends while she’s away.

On her bus ride to camp, all the other campers seem strange and unfriendly - everyone except the reserved girl Mia, who quickly appears beside her at the back of the bus. Though Skye proclaims to Mia that she doesn’t want any friends, Skye’s lone wolf tendencies are unsuccessful and a friendship begins to blossom.

Once they arrive at camp, Skye realizes she must have mistakenly hitched a ride on the wrong camp bus, because the head counselor is a real witch and the rest of the campers are actual monsters. Will Skye survive the summer or actually make friends with some of the creepy crew? This graphic novel is laugh-out-loud funny mixed with a bit of light horror. Pick up this book if this combination is intriguing.

Readers of humorous books will enjoy this title.

Fragile
By Jandra Sutton
Ava Collins is a deaf high schooler, but that doesn’t mean she’s not a typical teenager. The only thing being deaf means is being different, and different is a good thing. But Ava doesn’t enjoy school. Her classmates are pains and at times torment her because of her difference.

That is, until one day when Theo De Vries (the most attractive boy in school), stops her most frequent tormenter in the lunch room, seemingly putting an end to her miserable school days. Ava always knew Theo was special, but why would he stand up for her? This book will make you laugh and definitely make you cry. It’s only 150 pages, a quick must-read indeed.

Readers of realistic fiction will enjoy this novel.

Because we’re a member of the Evergreen Indiana Consortium, we have access to the audiobook collections of 43 libraries across the state. Can’t find what you’re looking for at KPL? Let us know, and we’ll see if it’s available from another library. It can be delivered right to KPL for you! Even easier? Using the OverDrive App for downloadable eBooks, and we can help you get started on your device. Through Ask KPL, we offer one-on-one technology training. Just call 343-2017 or email ldresser@kendallvillelibrary.org for an appointment.
