The library is here for YOU...when and where you need it!

While the pandemic has thrown a wrench into a lot of plans, the Kendallville Public Library has managed to get back to (mostly) business as usual, with a few additional services thrown in.

- The library is back to its regular hours. You no longer need an appointment to come into the library. Just come in during our regular business hours (listed on the back). We are here to help you, or you are welcome to browse the collection.

- We do require a mask to enter the library. Remember, if you have tested positive for COVID or are ill, we ask that you do not come to the library. We still want to help you any way we can, so please call us at 343-2010 (Kendallville) or 854-2775 (Rome City).

- Curbside Service is available for anyone, anytime. If you have items on hold, or want us to pull items for you, we will gladly check them out to you and bring them to your car. Call us at 343-2010 (Kendallville) or 854-2775 (Rome City) to make your requests, and then call us when you arrive to pick up your items.

- Doorstep Delivery is also available for anyone in our service area. You don’t need to be ill or physically confined to your house to take advantage of this drop-off service. Busy at home? Maybe you don’t want to pack the kids in the car for a trip in. No matter your reason...we deliver! Call us at 343-2010 (Kendallville) or 854-2775 (Rome City) to request this service. Have van, will travel!

Coping with the Stressors of COVID-19: The Bowen Center

While the COVID-19 crisis continues, for many it hasn’t gotten any easier to deal with the emotions this pandemic has caused. And with new challenges, like navigating the reality of heading back to school, working virtually, or self-quarantining while others are out and about, it can be even harder to cope with the emotional toll these situations take on us.

Jessica Smith and Breanna Jackson of the Bowen Center share some coping techniques that can help deal with anxiety caused by COVID-19. Whether it’s heading back to school, into work, dealing with crowds, or handling quarantine, they offer some great tips to make it through, and talk about where to get help when it’s needed.

KPL Comes to the Farmer’s Market!

The Kendallville Public Library will be one of the newest vendors at the Farmer’s Market at the Community Learning Center! While we won’t be selling anything, we do plan to bring items that will add value to the treasures you find at the market. Need an air fryer to roast your fresh veggies? We have one! Want to make a smoothie? Check out our Ninja Master Prep Professional set. We’ll bring a variety of cookbooks, and plenty of other items you might not expect from a library. Don’t have a library card? We can get you one on the spot! The next markets are on September 5, September 19 and October 3 at the Community Learning Center at the corner of Riley and Diamond Streets.

KPL Adventure Walks in Kendallville and Rome City

Make an adventure of walking the KPL Adventure Walks in Kendallville and Rome City! They’re a great way to enjoy the outdoors while getting exercise. Each walk starts at Grant Park and continues along a walkway to Kelly Park. In Kendallville, the walk of 18 stations starts at the front of the Kendallville Public Library and then continues in a loop around the library through the west side of Bixler Lake Park.
